2011 Clarinet and Saxophone Soloist Summer School

Christchurch New Zealand
January 19 - 22nd
Christchurch School of Music

This very special, intensive Summer School is for advanced clarinet and saxophone players who want to develop their performance skills.

Each participant will be required to prepare six solo pieces to play at the different performance classes. A maximum of only 12 players will be accepted into the course and each player will be given their own practice room for the duration of the Summer School in the lovely Christchurch School of Music.

Each participant will be required prior to the course to arrange or write an original piece to be played with other students in the Chamber Music Sessions.

As part of this summer school there will be four public concerts in which each student will perform and the final concert will be recorded so that each student has a memento of their very special time in New Zealand.
